Berlin Under Soviet Shellfire Says Paris

Germans Report 2 1/2 Million Foe Attacking City

By RICHARD KASISCHKE

LONDON (AP)—The German Transocean agency today said the Russians had captured Seelow and Wriezen and advanced to within 18 miles of the eastern limits of Berlin. The Paris radio meanwhile said today Berlin was under fire of Russian artillery.

Reporting a series of deep penetrations in the four-day-old Russian offensive by 2,500,000 Soviet soldiers, the Berlin radio said Forst, a Neisse River stronghold 65 miles southeast of Berlin, also had fallen.

Transocean's correspondent, Karl Bluecher, broadcast that "the battle for Berlin in the east is approaching its climax."

He said the Russians were but four kilometres northeast of Muencheberg, or about 18 miles due east of Berlin's city limits, and were east of Buckow, also 18 miles east of Berlin.

Wriezen, 23 miles northeast of Berlin, had been captured, he said, along with Seelow, 25 miles due east.

"Deep but narrow" penetrations had been made from the Russian bridgeheads along the Neisse, so the Russians were now due south of Cottbus, Spree River stronghold, 55 miles south-east of Berlin.

Other spearheads were due south of Spremberg, 13 miles south of Cottbus, and 69 miles southeast of Berlin, and east of Bautzen, 2 miles east of Dresden, and but 40 miles from U.S. positions north of Chemnitz.

Russian advances to Bautzen would represent a gain of 24 miles from the Neisse north of Forst, and advances to Spremberg would be a gain of 16 miles from Forst on the Neisse.

The Berlin drive, which by enemy account was entering its fourth day, still has not been confirmed by the Russian high command, though Moscow front-line dispatches have reported a great massing of Soviet forces on this front.

The German Transocean Agency said the Russians had developed a new, heavy breakthrough tank and a new automatic gun of undisclosed size, capable of firing 325 rounds a minute. The tank is fitted with a 188-mm. long-range gun and a large-calibre grenade thrower, the broadcast said. The Russian communique Wednesday night announced new gains in a two-way drive into Czechoslovakia, both aimed at the arsenal city of Brunn (Brno).

Bruenn Outflanked, Highway Severed

The 2nd Ukrainian Army, driving into the Moravian corridor from the south, scored advances of up to 14 miles, outflanking Bruenn and cutting the Bruenn-Vienna highway. It captured Invancie, 12 miles southwest of Bruenn and 108 miles from Prague.

Berlin correspondent Fritz Koeltz said the Russians were using artillery to an "unimaginable extent" in their advance on Berlin from the east.

The Germans indicated the Russians were driving toward Finsterwalde, 26 miles west of Spremberg and 46 miles from U.S. positions at Wurzen. Among other Russian successes reported by Berlin was the entry into Bilesdorf, 24 miles northeast of the capital.

$24,879,510,546 Vote for U.S. Navy

WASHINGTON (AP)—A $24,879,510,546 navy appropriation bill that prompted congressional demands that the U.S. retain Japanese islands in Pacific after the war, passed on a voice vote in the House today.

The bill for the fiscal year starting July 1, was approved without a vote of opposition, or a single major change. Boosting to approximately $130,000,000,000 the cash Congress has voted the navy since July 1, 1940, the bill now awaits Senate action.

Enthronement At Canterbury

CANTERBURY, Eng. (CP)—Most Rev. Geoffrey Fisher today was enthroned as 99th Archbishop of Canterbury, Primate of all England.

Bomb debris in the historic cathedral here formed the background for the medieval ceremony. Dr. Fisher, 57-year-old former Bishop of London who was elected Archbishop of Canterbury Jan. 22, said in a sermon today that "Love's highest work is that of reconciliation in divided and exhausted nations, in the moral wreckage of the war, for the conquest of peace."

Canada was represented at the ceremony by Rt. Rev. Edwin Robins, assistant Bishop of Norwich, who was Bishop of Athabasca from 1912 until 1930.

Tokyo Attacked By Air, Japs Say

LONDON (AP)—The Tokyo radio announced today that airdromes in the Tokyo and Kanto areas had been strongly attacked by U.S. bombers and fighters this morning.

The Domei news agency said about 60 fighters, probably Mustangs from Two Jima, and three Superfortresses had raided airfields around Tokyo for 30 minutes.

The dispatch claimed a "considerable number" were shot down. There was no U.S. confirmation of the report.

Churchill Mourns Friend

Russia Must Be Consulted As To Date for V-Day

LONDON (CP)—Prime Minister Churchill indicated today the announcement of V-E Day would come jointly with the Russians. "The matter is not one we can settle by ourselves," he said.

Parrying attempts to draw a hint from him as to when victory over Germany will be proclaimed, the Prime Minister told the House of Commons he had nothing to say at the present time "except that I deprecate premature speculation upon this subject."

The House cheered and then Mr. Churchill added, "the matter is not one we can settle by ourselves."

PROOF OF ATROCITIES

Describing the matter of German atrocities uncovered in captured prison and concentration camps as "one of urgency," Mr. Churchill announced that a letter received today from Gen. Eisenhower said "new discoveries, particularly at Weimar, far surpassed anything previously disclosed." The Buchenwald camp was located at Weimar.

The Prime Minister said "no words can express the horror which is felt by His Majesty's government and their Allies at the proof of these frightful crimes now daily coming into view."

A solemn warning has been prepared for the German government, or whatever authorities exist, by agreement with Russia and the United States," he disclosed, and he expressed the hope it would be issued in a few days. The warning made clear, he said, that "no order from superior authority would be any shield" to those at the top of those who had actually done "this foul work" with their own hands.

He said Gen. Eisenhower had invited him to send members of Parliament to get first-hand proof of the crimes as they are disclosed.

MUST BE DISCUSSED

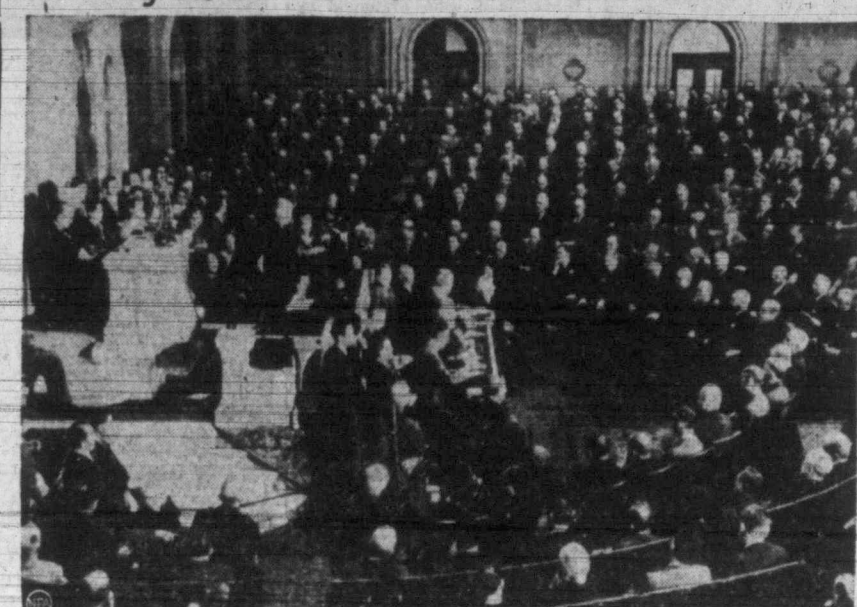

Mr. Churchill said the whole matter of V-E day, taking in both military and political considerations, would have to be discussed by the "three or four" principal powers engaged, before the final defeat of Germany was proclaimed.

One member asked whether Gen. Eisenhower's statement that V-E day would not be proclaimed until all important centres had been liquidated meant that Norway, Denmark and the Channel Islands and Atlantic ports would have to be liberated first.

Mr. Churchill reiterated that he had "no announcement about V-E day at the present time."

"I do not know, myself, why all this talk about V-E day has got about," the Prime Minister said. "No one in the British government and no responsible gentleman in any of the parties so far as I know has given any special encouragement to this."

British Within Six Miles of Hamburg As Yanks Take Leipzig, Mop Up Ruhr

By JAMES M. LONG

PARIS (AP)—The U.S. 1st Army has captured Leipzig, fifth city of Germany, and with the 9th Army seized all of the great Ruhr pocket in perhaps the greatest victory of the war.

Britons on the north flank closed within six miles and sight of the greatest continental port of Hamburg. They reached the Lower Elbe River on a 20-mile front.

Just to the south, 1,000 Germans with 20 tanks struck out from the British sector and drove three to 15 miles into the rear area of the 9th Army west of captured Stendal. They were engaged by cavalry forces. The foray was isolated and the Germans appeared to be trying to slip through the 9th Army's rear area into the besieged Hartz Mountain pocket, southwest of the 9th Army's five-mile-deep bridgehead pointed within 52 miles of Berlin.

The U.S. 3rd Army was driving into Czechoslovakia within gunshot of Asch, after bisecting Germany geographically, cutting routes into the Nazis' hideaway in the Bavarian Alps.

Other Americans fought hand-picked S.S. troops through the streets of the Bavarian Nazi centre of Nuernberg, now virtually surrounded.

The British 2nd Army reached the lower Elbe, last river before Berlin, and advanced to within six miles of Hamburg in a mighty effort to cut the North Sea ports from Berlin, beleaguered by Russian troops reported 17 miles east and U.S. forces 45 miles west.

The siege of Bremen was intensified.

In Holland, the 1st Canadian Army faced another in the long series of water barriers that have confronted it in the lowlands, as German-boosted floods spread across the Polders.

"All organized resistance in the Ruhr pocket has ceased and Allied forces have virtually completed mopping up the last enemy stragglers," Allied supreme headquarters announced. This meant that the great cities of Duesseldorf (139,000), Solinger (138,587), Remscheid (103,437) and Barmen (165,100) were in 1st and 9th Army hands along with the great Ruhr factories which produced 75 per cent of Hitler's war material as late as 1942.

Gen. Omar Bradley said 316,936 Germans were taken from the Ruhr pocket, and that more remained to be counted. This compared with 330,000 Germans captured and killed at Stalingrad, the greatest previous German disaster. The Allies have not yet estimated the number of Germans slain and wounded in the Ruhr.

One phase of the German campaign is finished and "it is necessary to pause temporarily before we go into the next," the 12th Army Group commander said. "Let the Germans guess as to what the next is going to be."

The last strongholds in Leipzig, including its city hall, were cracked this morning and infantrymen were ferreting out the last snipers. More than 20,000 prisoners and 1,000 88-mm. guns have been captured in or near the city.

The final hours of battle were illuminated by a violent electrical storm, blending like a Wagnerian scene with the flashes of gunfire.

Poles and Canadians of Gen. Crerar's army were opposite the North Sea port of Emden. The Canadians menaced Utrecht and Amsterdam, largest city in Holland, by advances through freshly-flooded areas along the southern shore of the Zuider Zee. The Germans blew more dikes north of Amsterdam.

Throw Away Rules, Nazis Ordered

LONDON (CP)—Paul Joseph Goebbels tonight called on the German people to throw away all the rules of warfare and use every means to defend the fatherland.

Hitler's Propaganda Minister said in his weekly newspaper Das Reich that "the rules of war of the past centuries have become out-of-date."

"In the battle against the terrible enemy, all means are proper, right, and allowed," said his article, quoted by the Berlin radio.

Ex-Nazi Goebbels told the German people that the nation was "balancing on the razor's edge," and called upon them to stand behind Hitler and, "by a last all-out effort, make sure that the Reich does not break apart."

Judges Appointed

OTTAWA (CP)—Prime Minister King this afternoon announced four appointments to the Bench of members of Alberta law circles, one of them to the Exchequer Court of Canada.

The appointments follow: C. Gerald O'Connor, K.C., Edmonton barrister, to be a puisne judge of the Exchequer Court of Canada.

Hon. Harold H. Parlee, Edmonton, member of the trial division of the Supreme Court of Alberta, becomes a member of the Appellate Division of that court.

Clinton J. Ford, Calgary, judge of the District Court of Southern Alberta, becomes a judge of the trial division of the Supreme Court of Alberta.

L. E. Fairbairn, Lethbridge, Alta., agent of the Attorney-General for the Judicial District of Lethbridge, becomes a judge of the District Court of Southern Alberta.

Tokyo Admits Ruin

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A Tokyo radio commentator bluntly admitted today that "a portion of the capital has been completely ruined" by U.S. air raids.

He said this had given Japanese war workers, who "stood up again from the midst of the debris," an added incentive to increase aircraft production.

UGANDA CROSSES EQUATOR—When Canada's new cruiser, the Uganda, crossed the line recently on her way to eastern waters—the first Canadian warship to do that via the Indian Ocean—Neptunus Rex rose out of the sea to initiate all those who were crossing for the first time. Neptune's police rounded up and brought before him for the time honored and rather fearsome ceremonies. Afterward, King Neptune condescended to pose with his court. All were veterans of previous Equator crossings and each man supplied his own costume, with startling results. The role of Neptune was played by Cmdr. H. L. Elliott, R.C.N.R., of Victoria, who is shown (left of centre) with his silver crown. His "Gracious Consort" was Leading Steward John Strathdee of Toronto.

Distinguished Soldier To Speak In Victoria

One of Britain's most distinguished soldiers, Lt.-Gen. Sir William Dobbie, G.C.M.G., K.C.B., D.S.O., LL.D. (Malta), famous for his defence of Malta, will be a guest at Government House from Sunday until Wednesday next week.

While in Victoria, he will officially open the 8th Victory Loan campaign here at a special ceremony on the Causeway at 11.30 Monday morning, as well as filling several other speaking engagements. Gen. Dobbie is accompanied by his wife, who is also speaking on two occasions. The couple will arrive in Victoria Sunday morning and will be officially welcomed by Mayor Percy George.

After opening the Victory Loan campaign, Gen. Dobbie will address the Men's Canadian Club Monday noon, and Monday afternoon Lady Dobbie will speak to the Women's Canadian Club.

Tuesday morning Lady Dobbie will address students at Victoria High School, and Sir William will speak to cadets at the Royal Naval College. Tuesday evening he will address a public meeting at the Royal Victoria Theatre.

NOTABLE CAREER

Gen. Dobbie has had a long and distinguished military career, starting in 1899 when he received his commission as second lieutenant in the Royal Engineers. He was born in Madras, India, son of W. H. Dobbie, C.I.E., of the Indian Civil Service, and grandson of Lt.-Gen. G. S. Dobbie of the Indian Army.

In 1904 Gen. Dobbie married Sybil, youngest daughter of Capt. Orde-Brown of the Royal Artillery.

He served in the South African war, and received a medal and five clasps. He served in Bermuda prior to World War I, in which he was a regimental officer, and later on operations staff under Lord Haig at General Headquarters in France. In that capacity he signed the order to the British Armies to stop fighting Nov. 11, 1918. In this war Gen. Dobbie won his D.S.O., the Legion of Honor, France; Order of Leopold, Belgium; Croix de Guerre, France and Belgium, and was mentioned in dispatches seven times.

Until July of 1919 he served with the army of occupation in Germany, when he was recalled to the War Office. He remained in the service, serving in Egypt, as commandant at the school of military engineering.

Until his retirement in 1939 Gen. Dobbie traveled extensively in the Far East and for a time commanded Malaya. In 1940 he voluntarily returned to active duty and in April of that year was made governor and commander-in-chief of Malta.

The Dobbies had two sons and one daughter. Their elder son, Maj. A. W. G. Dobbie, R.E., was killed in action in Italy in June, 1944, and the younger son, Maj. O. C. S. Dobbie, R.A., is now serving in Italy. The daughter, author of "Grace Under Malta," is married to Maj. P. E. Johnston, R.A., who is at present serving in East Africa.

PRAYING DEFENDER

It was as the defender of Malta that he won his greatest fame, when for two and a half years the island withstood siege and 2,300 air raids. It was here that he won his nickname as the "praying defender of Malta" for he said time and time again that the successful defence of the island was due not simply to the courage and skill of the garrison, and the fortitude of the civilian population, but to the over-riding providence of God.

Recognition of the loyalty and spirit of the people of Malta was given when King George conferred the George Cross on the island.

Mr. Cameron is considered by some the most likely to be selected.

LT.-GEN. SIR WM. DOBBIE

Over-subscribe Loan D. C. Coleman Asks C.P.R. Employees

MONTREAL — In a stirring appeal for their full support to the eighth Victory Loan, D. C. Coleman, chairman and president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, has sent the following message to the company's 83,000 officials and employees in Canada and throughout the Allied world:

"Six months ago, in recommending to you the seventh Victory Loan, I said we were approaching the moment to which the ring of iron would be completely closed around Germany. For all practical purposes that stage of the war has now been reached. It will be but a short time before the forces of the western allies make contact with those of the U.S.S.R. and not the wildest of Nazi fanatics can any longer delude himself into believing that Germany has not lost the war.

"Resounding victories have been won in the Orient. The brilliant successes of the forces of the United States in the Philippines, the extraordinary feats of British and Indian forces in Burma and the steady attrition of enemy forces by the Australians in the Islands past which the United States navy and army have swept, mean that we approach the moment at which the United Nations will engage in driving the enemy from the soil of China, and in actual invasion of the Japanese homeland.

SWEEP FROM SEAS, SKIES

"The aggressors have been swept from the seas and the skies, and while there remains the momentous task of accomplishing their final defeat on land, there is not the slightest doubt that this will move rapidly to completion.

"As you know, the military victories do not complete the task to which we have dedicated our efforts. The nations which have been liberated are faced with difficult problems in the reconstruction of their own governments and the re-establishment of their societies. These tasks impose upon us heavy burdens, for they cannot be accomplished without assistance from the more fortunate nations, on a scale which may demand from us sacrifices of comfort equivalent to those made for the war itself.

"In our own country we are beginning the great task of re-establishing in civil life the survivors of our fighting forces, and we still have ahead of us the conversion of our national economy from war to peace activities.

"For all these reasons, it is of the utmost importance that the eighth Victory Loan should be subscribed and over-subscribed.

FIRST CLASS INVESTMENT

"As an investment, the obligations of the government of Canada must be regarded as of the highest quality, at a time when the earning power of the Canadian people is at its highest record levels, and it is desirable that we should be sparing in the use of goods and services so that the war activities of our country may be adequately supplied. Every reason of personal prudence and lofty motives of patriotism and humanity should prompt us to make our purchases of the new victory loan as large as possible.

"As we approach the end of this war, the greatest crisis of human history, we certainly must not and shall not slacken our efforts at any point, or in any field. The ample provision of resources with which our government carry out its functions is a necessary and vital part of our contribution to the war.

"The officers and employees of the Canadian Pacific Railway have, in this field, as in actual participation in battle, and in all the tasks of supplying our armed forces, established a record throughout the war of which we are proud.

"The eighth Victory Loan gives us an opportunity to maintain the

More Expenditure On Forest Service Urged at Inquiry

Forest Department's relations with industry, question of private property rights, comparison between the forest service and other government departments with regard to expenditure and revenue and logging practices in British Columbia, were discussed Wednesday at the forest inquiry before Chief Justice Gordon McG. Sloan, royal commissioner.

The inquiry was adjourned until May 21 when it will reopen in Vancouver. The timber industry will present its brief and if the brief and examination are concluded in time, argument by counsel may be heard in Vancouver, beginning May 28.

"Industry subscribes to the principles you set out in your brief. They feel that the forest service has been starved in the past and more money should have been spent on it, especially in the development of a highly-trained staff," Walter S. Owen, K.C., counsel for the B.C. Loggers' Association and other coast timber owners, said.

CO-OPERATION

C. D. Orchard, deputy minister of the Forest Department, said the department's relations with industry had always been excellent and that co-operation had been very good. When asked by Mr. Owen if, in view of that co-operation, there was any fear of a forest program failing, if it were economically possible to carry it out, Mr. Orchard replied that in the overall picture he had no fear of industry at all.

Certain recommendations contained in Mr. Orchard's brief were termed "invasion of private property rights" by D. Nell Hossie, representing the crown grant timberland owners' committee of the B.C. Loggers' Association.

As a first approach to the problem of sustained yield, Mr. Orchard recommended that privately-owned forest lands should be kept continuously under crop and that privately-owned forest lands logged or otherwise denuded, after the date of coming into force of laws or regulations in this regard, should be fully stocked within eight years of the date of logging.

Mr. Hossie contended that it was up to the owner whether he wished to keep his lands continuously under crop.

Chief Justice Sloan said it was "a startling proposition" at this stage of the inquiry, and expressed himself not in sympathy with any group which wished to exploit the resources of the province to its economic detriment.

He added that such was not his understanding from previous witnesses, with regard to the question of keeping the lands continuously under crop. H. W. Davey, K.C., counsel for the commission, also referred to testimony given at earlier sittings of the inquiry.

"Is it correct to say that the forest branch is in a most unfavorable position compared with other departments?" Mr. Owen asked.

"In relation to expense and income, by all manner of means," replied Mr. Orchard.

FOREST EXPENDITURE

Over a 10-year period from 1933 to 1943, the average total expenditure on forests was 28.8 per cent of its revenue, Mr. Owen stated. In answer to a question Mr. Orchard said the Game Department expenditure had nearly always kept well to 100 per cent of its income.

"Mechanical standards of getting logs out of the woods is as high or higher in B.C. than anywhere, but consideration of getting them out with regard to silviculture or forest management has not been that high," Mr. Orchard said.

"I think industry is prepared to take steps to reach that standard, if they get the leadership and assistance they can reasonably expect from the government."

Chief Justice Sloan offered congratulations to Mr. Orchard on his appointment as Deputy Minister of the Forest Department, and stated that it was a well-deserved promotion and honor.

Home on the Crow Baker estate which has been taken over by the society and remodelled for patients leaving hospital.

Plans for a nursing home to relieve the crowded hospitals in Victoria have been completed by building and grounds committee of the Victoria Nursing Home Society of which F. E. Winslow is president.

The former home of Mrs. Crow-Baker at 63 Gorge Road has been purchased by the society, and work of alterations started Wednesday.

The 17-room home, set well back from the road up a long drive, will accommodate 40 patients. The home will be for patients who are able to leave the hospitals, but, in many cases, would not have anyone at home to care for them, and might not be able to help themselves. Many of these patients have to stay longer in the hospital, and it is hoped that the general congestion in the hospitals will be relieved by providing other accommodation for them.

Price of Butter To Be 'Adjusted'

OTTAWA (CP)—The Prices Board has announced that creamery butter prices in Canada will be adjusted May 1 so that ceilings will be more uniform for all dealers and seasonal reductions in wholesale prices will be reflected in the price to consumers.

The order will adjust the price relationship between provinces to bring it into line with transportation costs, effect a more equitable distribution of the supply and utilize transportation storage facilities to better advantage.

OTTAWA (CP)—Appointment of 12 new senators has been announced by Prime Minister King in a clean-up of political business before he leaves at the head of the Canadian delegation to the San Francisco World Security Conference.

The Prime Minister, who will entrain for San Francisco today, made the Senate announcements and those of a number of judicial appointments last Wednesday night. They followed by only a few hours a reshuffle of the cabinet in which seven new ministers were appointed in preparation for the general election on June 11.

NEW SENATORS

The Senate appointments, which still leave six vacancies in the Upper Chamber, are: Charles Bishop, 69, veteran member of the parliamentary press gallery; Hon. T. A. Crerar, 68, former Resources Minister; W. H. Taylor, 55, Scotland, Ont. former Chief Government Whip; F. W. Gesshaw, M.D., 62, Medicine Hat, Liberal member for Medicine Hat; J. P. MICHAUD CHIEF JUSTICE

In addition, Mr. King's announcement designated Hon. J. E. Michaud, who resigned as Transport Minister in the reorganization of the cabinet earlier this week, as Chief Justice of the New Brunswick Court of King's Bench, and disclosed these other appointments:

Hon. Thomas Vieu, Speaker of the Senate, as member of the Privy Council; J. E. Ferron, K.C., of Louisville, Que., Liberal member of Parliament for Berthier-Maskinonge, as member of the Quebec Superior Court for Three Rivers, Que.; Maj. Sam Factor, K.C., Toronto, Liberal member of Parliament for Toronto-Spadina, as junior judge of the County Court of York in Ontario.

Only Mr. Bishop, Mr. McDonald and Mr. McLean were chosen from outside the House. All the others were sitting Liberal members of the Commons up to the dissolution Monday. The new appointments bring the standing in the Senate to 60 Liberals and 30 Progressive Conservatives, with six seats still vacant, one of which is for British Columbia.

Chaplin Must Pay Baby $75 a Week

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Charles Chaplin was ordered Wednesday by Judge Clarence L. Kincaid to pay $75 a week for the support of 18-month-old Carol Ann Berry, who, a jury ruled Tuesday is the comedian's child.

This is the amount the comedian has been paying under a pre-trial agreement.

Her guardian, Attorney A. H. Risse, testified at the support hearing Wednesday that in his opinion the child needed $1,000 to $1,500 a month.

The court ordered the actor to pay Risse and Joseph Scott, attorneys of the baby's mother, Joan Berry, a combined fee of $5,000. Scott, in arguing what the fee should be, had said:

"We are expecting your honor to allow us a fee of $50,000. We've not received a dime as attorney's fees in this case."

Judge Kincaid denied Miss Berry's counsel any court costs except such items as filing fees.

After court had closed Scott told reporters: "I'm not satisfied I will say that."

Chaplin's counsel, Charles E. Millikan, said he had no statement to make yet on whether Chaplin would appeal.

Risse was asked on what he based his estimate that the baby needed $1,000 to $1,500 a month.

"On the amount the child should be entitled to considering the station in life of her father," he replied. "He is worth, I understand, well in excess of $1,000,000."

Early Shake-up in U.S. Cabinet Seen By Washington Observers

WASHINGTON (AP)—Some members of the Roosevelt cabinet are on the way out—soon—it is believed.

Although the feeling has been general here that President Truman might delay any changes for a couple of months, close friends suggested today that one or more new department heads may be named within days.

Most of them pointed to the Labor Department, which Secretary Perkins undoubtedly would like to leave as soon as she gracefully can. Most mentioned as possible successor is Senator Harley Kilgore (Dem., W.Va.).

Sensor Kilgore is satisfactory to the C.I.O. and also has worked with the A.F.L. Both organizations must be reasonably satisfied with the man chosen because he probably will head a revitalized department containing all labor agencies.

A change also will be made in the agriculture set-up, with Secretary Wickard slated to step out in favor of a new man who may take over the duties of War Food Administrator as well.

Marvin Jones, who fills the latter post, told friends recently he would like to go back to the Court of Claims, from which he was borrowed by President Roosevelt. Mr. Jones still draws

2,500 Jews Freed By U.S. Army

WITH THE U.S. 9TH ARMY (AP)—Approximately 2,500 Jews held by Hitler for ransom have been liberated by U.S. 9th Army forces, it was announced Wednesday night.

They were Jews held in a special concentration camp and exchanged for German prisoners through neutral countries. Some were freed by bribes from friends or relatives in North or South America.

The 2,500 prisoners were packed like cattle in 45 cars mostly freight, in the village of Carlsbad. The Germans had been trying to rush the Jews to the Sudetenland from the concentration camp of Bergen-Belsen in the province of Hannover.

his pay as a judge and receives no salary as food administrator. J. B. Hutson, deputy in charge of agricultural reconstruction in the War Mobilization Office, might be Mr. Truman's choice for the enlarged agriculture portfolio.

Mr. Hutson is a close friend of James F. Byrnes, the former War Mobilizer whose advice is likely to continue to be welcomed by the President.

Mr. Byrnes went back to his Spartanburg, S.C., home for a rest Wednesday, and it is understood he won't come back to Washington for any unofficial advisory position.

When he reappears in government service, it probably will be as Secretary of State, succeeding Edward R. Stettinius.

By that time the San Francisco United Nations Conference will be over, with the way possibly clear for Mr. Stettinius to become the U.S. representative in the proposed security organization.

CABINET CHANGES

WELL-DERIVED REWARD HAS COME to those four members of the 19th Parliament who obtained their training in the school of Parliamentary assistants to their respective ministers. The cabinet changes announced by Mr. King yesterday were occasioned by the retirement of Resources Minister Crerar, Transport Minister Michaud, State Secretary McLarty, Navy Minister Macdonald and War Services Minister LaFleche.

Mr. Joseph Jean, former Parliamentary Assistant to Justice Minister St. Laurent, will now become Solicitor-General, a re-establishment of an old cabinet post; Mr. Lionel Chevrier, Parliamentary Assistant to Munitions Minister Howe, is to be Minister of Transport; Mr. Paul Martin, Parliamentary Assistant to Labor Minister Mitchell, to be Secretary of State; Mr. Douglas Abbott, Parliamentary Assistant to Defence Minister McNaughton, to be Navy Minister; Dr. J. J. McCann, former member for Renfrew South, Ont., to be Minister of War Services; Mr. D. Laurence MacLaren, former mayor of Saint John, N.B., and Liberal nominee for Saint John-Albert, to be Minister of National Revenue.

The first four selected have proved their ability in the House of Commons and the Prime Minister has shown commendable wisdom in introducing this younger element to full cabinet responsibility. All are under 50 years of age and the youngest is 41. Here is impressive recognition on the part of Mr. King of the nature of the task that will confront the next government—a task that will demand a combination of vigor and imagination which these former Parliamentary assistants have shown themselves to possess. It is reasonable to assume, too, that Dr. McCann and Mr. MacLaren owe their choice to special qualifications of which the Prime Minister is fully aware.

Particularly popular throughout the country, however, will be Mr. King's appointment of former Speaker James A. Glen, one of the ablest presiding officers the House of Commons has had for a long time, to the portfolio of Mines and Resources, hitherto occupied by veteran parliamentarian Hon. T. A. Crerar, who now goes to the Senate. In his new role, Mr. Glen will administer the National Parks branch of the Dominion government, an agency of the public service to which British Columbia is looking hopefully for collaboration in the matter of developing wider recreational and tourist attractions in this favored province. And we know from his fairly frequent visits to this part of Canada that the new minister has a particularly soft spot for Vancouver Island and its potentialities for park expansion. Without appearing to "rush" him, therefore, we commend to his special attention and consideration such areas as that which embraces the Forbidden Plateau.

Like all Scotsmen, of course, Mr. Glen's favorite recreation is golf, which leads us to suppose that he will understand how ample water supplies can contribute immeasurably to the further development of the Royal and Ancient pastime as a lucrative tourist industry—an important adjunct to British Columbia's postwar economy.

SPEED AND EFFICIENCY

CITIZENS THROUGHOUT THE PROVINCE will view with satisfaction the speed with which Premier John Hart has implemented the policy he laid down at the last session of the Legislature on his $10,000,000 British Columbia Power Commission, and will applaud the selection of the three men of proven abilities to administer the project.

Just exactly three weeks have intervened between prorogation of the House at which provision was made for the commission and the announcement of the administrative board's personnel. The dispatch with which the action has been taken illustrates a firm decision on the part of the Premier to lose no time in providing the power facilities which can count so greatly in British Columbia's development in the postwar period. "When the lights come on again all over the world," this province will have done its utmost to see that hydro-electric energy is available to flash the green light for expansion.

The selection of the administrators will claim wide approval. Mr. S. R. Weston, B.Sc., has firmly established his position in the power field. Apart entirely from his highly satisfactory work as chief engineer of the provincial Public Utilities Commission and the mature counsel he later brought to the preparation of the Electric Power Act, his reputation with the New Brunswick commission amply qualifies him for his new duties as chairman.

Maj.-Gen. Foster, too, comes to the board with a splendid name for organizational ability as well as an exceptional record in war service.

Victoria, naturally, finds gratification in the selection of Mr. Forrest L. Shaw as a member of the board. As city solicitor he has gained the regard of all with whom he has come into contact, a respect broadened by the able manner in which he conducted the affairs of the Union of Municipalities during the time he directed their legal affairs. His presentation of Victoria's brief at B.C. Electric hearings drew praise not only from those on whose behalf he appeared but also from neutral and opposing interests. His study of the power question, coupled with his wide acquaintance with the different municipalities and villages of British Columbia, should be an invaluable aid to the commission in expediting the broad plans of the commission for the general betterment of the province and the individual centres and settlements to which expansion of services will mean so much.

IN THE LINE OF DUTY

FURTHER POSTHUMOUS TRIBUTES can add little to the honor Ernie Pyle, 44-year-old Scripps-Howard newspaper correspondent and soldiers' columnist, had earned during his life. The sincerity of the sentiments expressed by President Truman and United States Navy Secretary Forrestal is shared by countless thousands for the man who "told so well the story of the American fighting man as the American fighting man wanted it told." He fell in the line of duty, cut down by Japanese machine gun fire on Ie Jima, a small island off Okinawa, gathering his material first hand.

The simple, direct words of the President in honor of the correspondent, whose death "quickly saddened again" his country, describe his achievements:

"More than any other man he became the spokesman of the ordinary American in arms doing so many extraordinary things. It was his genius that the mass and power of our military and naval forces never obscured the men who made them. He wrote about a people in arms as a people still, but a people moving in a determination which did not need pretensions as a part of power."

Ernie Pyle spoke for the tough, sometimes inarticulate, fighting men. The President, too, spoke for them in his tribute. Ernie Pyle brought honor and credit to his profession. His death came as he carried on the great tradition of craftsmen who risk their lives that those far from the scene may receive honest reports on events of moment. Mr. Pyle will live in the hearts not only of all servicemen, who revered him as a comrade and spokesman, but in those of newspapermen who appreciate the value of a job well done.

NOT FOR STYLE

TO THE MAN ON COMBAT DUTY, THE sartorial perfections of a smart ensemble may be something to dream about when he returns to Clivvy Street. But he is less preoccupied with the size, color and design of the modern check or stripe than he is with the immediate factors which could contribute to his comfort and safety in the job he is doing.

"Yank," the United States Army weekly, last month published a diagram of zipper or button-fastened leggings that would save the lower part of a man's legs from the chaffing of wet trouser bottoms unprotected by his raincoat. It appears a relatively unimportant item to the man who can go home and change when he is saturated; but it would certainly be a comfort to those on guard duty in the rain.

After many years combat, the Canadian Navy has designed and issued a special life-jacket for the men afloat, as well as special clothing for those who are carried into the cold latitudes of the north and who formerly made shift with sweaters they received from home or comfort agencies. This "zoot-suit," according to men who have been equipped, is a welcome addition. But they are a little puzzled by the life-jacket. Its weight makes it a killing job to wear it, some contend. Moreover, they report, it depends very largely on human agency for inflation. And if a man is knocked from the deck and hits the water unconscious, he is in no position to blow up the buoyancy chambers. Those who have received the navy coat of armor, while deeply appreciative of the effort made to protect their lives, find the equipment too heavy and bulky for continuous comfortable wear.

They look with some envy at the counterpart issued to the R.C.A.F.—a lighter, more compact and admirably equipped jacket, with sufficient kapok to keep a man afloat long enough to start the automatic inflating device built into the protector.

If the men of the silent service are right in their estimate of the superiority of the air force equipment, is there any reason why they should not be given the latter? Canada wants the best for the men whose comforts and safeguards are necessarily restricted by the job they do.

THE PACIFIC WAR

WHILE CANADA HAS MADE DEFINITE naval commitments to the war in the Pacific and British sea power, units of which are already on the scene, is expected to be bolstered there when the war in Europe is completed, the United States apparently will continue to carry the major attack to the islands stolen by Japan as well as to the Japanese mainland.

The American resistance to participation by others in that theatre of war strengthens the position of the Dominion government in its decision to qualify—depending on events—the allocation of Canadian army personnel for that area. Such action somewhat dilutes the manpower issue as an election theme—and gives it the quality of a yesterday. And, as Conservative House Leader Gordon Graydon said, "those in or out of the party who think only of yesterday are going to be left with only a yesterday."

By that token, the political value of one of the Progressive Conservative Party's chief whipping rods loses what little force it may have had to inflame partisan minds. Canada will contribute its share to the subjugation of the Japanese, but that contribution, in the light of Washington opinion, will not be of a nature to provide political capital for anti-government exploitation on the hustings between now and June 11.

PANDORA'S BOX

COLONIAL QUESTIONS were discussed at Yalta, exchanges of views are now under way, and the San Francisco Conference will have to take decisions about them. They are complex and explosive questions, and in our own approach to them we must make very sure that we really know what we mean and that we mean what we say. For this we can do no better than to ask ourselves what are our own American ideals and policies in regard to territories and peoples which are not self-governing.

We are ourselves a colonial power, and it is as a colonial power that we have to approach this problem with our Allies in the United Nations. Moreover, we cannot afford to take the view that our treatment of the Philippine Islands is a model, which exhibits all our ideals and principles about colonial territories. We have no intention, for example, of dealing with Alaska as we have dealt with the Philippines, nor with the Hawaiian Islands as we shall wish to deal with either Alaska or the Philippines, or with the Panama Canal Zone or with Puerto Rico or with the Virgin Islands. Merely to name the territories which are not now self-governing is to realize at once that there is no general formula which we, or any one else, can agree to.

IN EXAMINING colonial questions with other nations we shall understand them better, and they will understand us better, if we do not make the assumption, now current, that the only right solution is to do what we are doing in the Philippines: that is, to prepare the colonial people for self-government, grant them independence, set them up as a new sovereign state, and then clear out. Alaska reminds us that there is another solution which, when it is feasible, is morally as desirable, perhaps more. It is the solution which the Continental Congress formulated for the territory north of the Ohio, and which—adopted into the Constitution—determined the future of the whole continental territory west of the boundaries of the original 13 states. This is to admit new states into the Union on a basis of full equality.

Independence, as in the case of the Philippines, is one solution. Eventual admission into the Union, as in the case of Alaska, is another. Who is prepared to say whether either of these solutions is the ideally right one for Puerto Rico? And no one will be prepared to say that either solution is the right one for the Canal Zone.

OUR OWN COLONIAL empire, though a small one, is, therefore, exceedingly complex. Yet it is fairly simple as compared with a great structure like the British Commonwealth and Empire, or with that of the French Empire. We have to bear this in mind when we go to San Francisco intending, if that is our intention, to propose a declaration of ideals on the government of dependent peoples. For any declaration we sponsor must fit our own ideals and practice in the Philippines, in Alaska, in Puerto Rico, in the Canal Zone, in Guam, and in the Virgin Islands. I doubt whether the mind of man is capable of composing a declaration which covers all these specific colonial territories.

Does this mean that the world organization should not be concerned with colonial problems? Not at all. But it does mean, I believe, that we should be very chary indeed of proposing great generalizations which cannot be applied to all the particular cases, that we should not introduce into the Dumbarton Oaks charter legislation on colonial affairs, but should regard it strictly as a constitution which grants to the United Nations limited power to create organs of consultation.

The colonial policy of the United States, which governed the settlement of the whole continent, is stated in Article IV, Section 3 of the Constitution. It is ten lines long, and its language is austere and dry. Let us use its style, rather than the grandiose ambiguities of the Atlantic Charter, for our model.

THERE ARE TWO compelling reasons, it seems to me, for thinking that the San Francisco conference should not try to settle and solve, or give the world the impression it would like to settle and solve, the colonial questions of this earth. The first is that while all enlightened men must insist on the moral principle that a power which governs dependent people is accountable to the conscience of mankind, that is quite a different thing from saying that it would be feasible or wise to make it legally accountable to the membership of the United Nations. It just is not in the cards to make the Governor of Alaska, the Governor-General of Bermuda, or the Governor of Tunis legally answerable to an assembly in which Saudi Arabia, Iraq, Iran, Liberia, Ethiopia, Dominica, Haiti, sit as sovereign judges. It would be a mistake to try.

A second reason why San Francisco should not legislate is that before there can be a proper settlement even of colonial territory lost by Germany in the last war, by Japan and Italy in this war, it will be necessary to negotiate security pacts in the Atlantic, the Mediterranean, and the Pacific. What should be done with Pantelleria, for example, cannot be determined intelligently until Britain, France and the United States know where they stand with respect to one another on all sea and air bases in the Atlantic Ocean. What should be done with the islands in the Pacific cannot be determined until there is among all the powers concerned a specific security agreement for the Pacific.

These security agreements will have to be co-ordinated with the United Nations organization as a whole. But they cannot be made by it.

Today's WAR NEWS Analysis

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press War Analyst

One of the most unusual questions our column has had submitted is this:

"There are a lot of folk, including myself, who deeply regret that when this war is over there still will be Germans alive. However, there are others who chide us for this feeling. Will you please explain why we are wrong?"

The question is worth consideration, since presumably it has run through most minds.

RECORD OF ATROCITIES

First off, one can say that the regret expressed is understandable. This understanding is fortified when we read of such current horrors as the German atrocities at the Gardelegen, Buchenwald and other concentration camps—savagery which is mild compared with the wholesale tortures and massacres carried out by German troops in Russia and Poland.

And while we are on the subject, let's not overlook the long line of Japanese barbarities, the latest of which is the Manila butchering made public by the U.S. War Department.

The Germans who have been responsible for such atrocities and for any other war guilt, including the launching of a war of aggression, must pay the penalty. That's one of the chief aims proclaimed by the Allies.

I'll go further and say that it would be a blessing to humanity if some cataclysm should destroy the entire Prussian race. It's Prussian militarism which for generations has tortured the world with the aggression that has developed the excrecence of Nazism.

Indeed, all Germans must stand responsible morally for Hitler-inspired crimes, since the people as a whole at least have condoned his evil. However, the Allied governments, and particularly the Russians, have differentiated between the actual war criminals and the mass of the Germans who seemingly haven't been involved in war crimes.

It's only recently that, by way of explaining unconditional surrender, Allied airmen distributed pamphlets over Germany, saying that "individual Germans who had nothing to do with crimes committed by the war criminals will not be taken to account for those crimes." The Germans also have been assured that "it is the wish of the Allies to give the German people the possibility for normal, peaceful development as members of the European family of nations."

RUSSIAN ATTITUDE

This was reaffirmed in substance a couple of days ago in Moscow by the Communist Party's propaganda chief, Georgi Alarandrov, who declared:

"The Soviet government never has and does not have as its aim the extermination of the German race. This would be stupid and unthinkable. The Soviet people have never considered as one and the same the German population and the criminal Nazi clique ruling Germany."

I think we are entitled to hope that the German people may be reformed over a long period of intensive Allied tutelage. Anyway, it's an experiment the United Nations think worth trying.

THIS WAR—4 YEARS AGO

By The Canadian Press

April 19, 1941—Vichy France withdrew from the League of Nations. King George II assumed wartime control of the Greek government. A British raiding party landed at Bardia, Libya, destroying an important bridge, firing Axis stores and putting coastal guns out of commission.

The hospitals on the east coast are filled and now it's necessary to send our wounded to hospitals in the midwest and south away from thickly populated centres of population. It's no longer possible in all cases to get the wounded man in the hospital nearest his home.—Maj.-Gen. Norman T. Kirk, Army Surgeon General.

It is estimated that between 40 and 50 per cent of the professional Japanese soldiers have studied English, and that 25 per cent speak it efficiently.

BABY'S UPSET STOMACH QUICKLY CORRECTED

BABY'S little "Tummy" is often easily upset. It is easily "righted" again, too, if you know just how to do it. Let Mrs. M. S. Alway, of London, Ont., tell you: "Baby's Own Tablets are a great help at the first sign of upset stomach, during teething time or when a cold is coming on. They work quickly yet gently to carry away poisons and promote quiet sleep. Walking floors at night is unknown in our home."

And Mrs. W. K. Sharp says: "I nursed my baby shortly after being alarmed over a minor accident and that upset her almost to the point of convulsions. I gave her Baby's Own Tablets and she soon stopped crying—went to sleep." Equally effective for teething troubles, constipation, simple fever and diarrhoea. Sweetening, easily crushed in a powder. If desired—smooths the skin. No "sleepy" stuff—no dulling effect. Buy a box today for sickness so often strikes in the night. 25 cents. Money back if not satisfied.

Smart Models for the Budget

Summer casuals were the feature of a sportswear review sponsored by the Junior Auxiliary to St. Joseph's Hospital at the nurses' home Wednesday afternoon and evening. Proceeds will go toward the building of the new wing. The sum of $154 was realized.

The styles were in groups to make up a wardrobe costing about $100, and could be purchased by those who work on budgets. Many service girls going back into civilian clothes with limited finances would find these clothes most useful. Several outfits of sport frocks, coats, jacket blouses, slacks and smart dresses could be changed about and other costumes worn.

New Yorker blouse of white cotton was worn with a gold slacks suit and bright red play shoes. Mrs. Frank Gibson wore a smart paddy green belted shortie coat over a stunning grey crepe frock. Miss Audrey Joyce showed to perfection a green slacks suit with a wide striped jersey and play shoes.

For the teenagers, cotton jumpers of washable prints were worn by Miss Diana Hibbert and Corinne Earle. These prints were made in tailored style, and also the jumper and pinafore style with smart white blouses. Stripes and polka dots and tiny watering can designs were the pattern chosen.

Always in style and very smart was the navy blue suit worn by Mrs. C. A. MacGillivray. Her hat was of the wide brim felt style and her sheer blouse was hand finished. With this ensemble she wore bright red gloves.

Popular and stylish was the smart sport frock of men's shirt ing material which is easily laundered.

For the girl who plays tennis was shown the smart white pleated tennis skirt, very short and the midriff top, also of white. Along this line were the shorts and tops of midriff style shown with the wrap around skirt.

In the finale, cotton dresses were worn by all the models and showed prints of all styles in stripes and polka dots. Particularly outstanding was the frock worn by Mrs. Wheldon, with the small sleeves that could be taken off or buttoned on.

The clothes were through the courtesy of Lyle's Junior Sports Wear, 732 Fort Street. C. Heaton played the musical accompaniment and Mrs. June Beavan was the commentator.

The stage was decorated with daffodils and spring flowers and models appeared on the stage in a gold frame six feet in height. Models included Mesdames Dorothea Wheldon, Bertha Ricardo, C. A. MacGillivray, Frank Gibson, Ian MacCallum, P. H. Brown, M. J. Jones, and Miss Audrey Joyce, Miss Bertha Crosby, and Junior models Miss Diana Hibbert and Miss Corinne Earle. Miss Wynne Varney, president, headed the models' committee.

"Barbara Gould" make-up was through the courtesy of Darling's Pharmacy; flowers and plants, Ballantyne Brothers, and properties for stage setting, David Spencer Ltd and McCall Brothers. Working on the committee were Miss Carroll Woolley, general convener, and Mrs. A. Satchwell, Mrs. C. A. MacGillivray, Mrs. J. O'Connor, Miss Rhoda Goward, Mrs. D. Wheldon and Miss A. Joyce.

Lillabelle Moore Wed in Vancouver

The marriage took place Saturday evening in Christ Church Cathedral, Vancouver, of Lillabelle Evelyn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Moore, 2944 Wascana Street, and Frank Schroyen, son of Mrs. E. Schroyen of Ladner and the late Mr. A. Schroyen. Dean Cecil Swanson performed the ceremony and F. Chubb played the wedding music.

The bride was given away by her father and wore a street-length frock of pink sheer with shoulder veil trimming her matching hat. Her corsage bouquet was composed of orchids and lily-of-the-valley and she carried a white Bible.

Mrs. A. Bishop was matron of honor, wearing blue sheer, and Miss Alice Moore was bridesmaid, also frocked in blue sheer. Both wore floral halo hats with veiling and corsage bouquets of pink carnations and sweet peas. Pierre Schroyen of Ocean Falls was best man and ushering were Mr. L. A. A. Bishop, D.F.C., of Sidney, and A. Schroyen of North Vancouver.

A reception was held at Park Hall, Burnaby, after which the couple left for a honeymoon in Calgary and Edmonton, the bride wearing a brown suit and green toecap. Mr. and Mrs. Schroyen will reside in the Northwest Territories.

In celebration of the 25th anniversary of the forming of the South Salt Spring Island Woman's Institute, the members gave a tea in Fulford Hall. Mrs. R. Maxwell, who was president for 15 years, cut the cake. The guests of honor were Mrs. R. Maxwell, Mrs. T. Reid, who was secretary-treasurer for 12 years; Mrs. P. C. Mollett, charter member; Mrs. J. Cairns, president, and Mrs. E. Rolands, secretary-treasurer.

To Extend Classes For Overseas Wives

A variety of classes will be held in the future for overseas wives, it was announced by Mrs. Kenneth Barr of the Welfare House, at the second of a new series of overseas wives' classes held Wednesday in the B.C.E.R. showrooms. These classes will include sewing and the wives were asked for suggestions. Eight new members were enrolled at Wednesday's class when Mrs. M. A. Foulds, cooking instructor, demonstrated recipes for shortbread, cake, cream puffs, macaroni and cheese. Mrs. Barbara Alton assisted Mrs. Foulds.

TECHNIQUE WINS FAIR BRIDE

A man wants to know how he can turn liking into loving. He says that he is 32 years old and wants to marry, and that he has many young women friends, but nary a sweetheart, and that when he pops the question to a girl she tells him she will be a sister to him, but not a wife.

Which, of course, is like being served a dish of corned beef and cabbage when you craved ice cream and cake. But, alas, no one has discovered any way by which lukewarm affection can be heated up to the boiling point. Nor can anyone teach a man any magic trick by which he can make a girl see him as a hero of romance and her heart's desire, instead of just plain John Jones whom she likes and respects, but does not yearn to possess.

This ability to attract the opposite sex is something that comes by Nature, and it is not to be acquired by either taking thought, or fasting and prayer. If you have it, you have it. And if you don't have it, you are just out of luck, and there you are. But it goes a long way to explain why so many women who would make ideal wives are old maids, and why so many men who would make priceless husbands and fathers are uncles instead of Papas.

TECHNIQUE WRONG

Of course, to be a wolf and slay men as you go, you have to be born a wolf; but there is a happy medium between a lady-killer and being good old Fido, who has been trained to fetch and carry when other dates don't show up. Hence, when a man fails to light the fires of love in ANY woman's heart, it is because there is something wrong with his technique.

Perhaps it is because he is a stodgy lover. He has the emotional nature of a fish. There is no warmth in him. He asks for a woman's heart as if he were buying a pound of sausage. He doesn't tell the girl he is wooing that she is the most wonderful and beautiful creature on earth, and that if she doesn't marry him he will perish.

He calls her attention to the fact that they belong to the same church and are interested in the charities, and that he has a paying job, and she is a good cook, and he thinks they will be happy together if they marry. And no woman, unless she thinks she is hearing the last call to the dining car, will say anything but "no" to a proposal like that.

Or, perhaps, the man is a bad picker. He selects a girl who is too young to be in love with anything but love itself, and who craves romance and a whirlwind courtship that sweeps her off her feet, which it isn't in him to give her. Or else he sets his fancy on a woman who has outgrown her girlish raptures and decided that she prefers her latchkey to a husband.

Or, maybe, the man makes the mistake of becoming a habit with a girl. He is always on call. She can always depend on him. So she takes him for granted. It is like having a husband who is not always under foot, and who doesn't feel free to criticize her or boss her, and so she has a beautiful friendship with him, and marries some other man.

So the man who wonders why he has so many girl friends and no sweetie should look to his own conduct and try to see where he is at fault and revise his methods. For all women want to love and be loved, and to marry, but they want a courtship that has some pep in it, and to be asked to say "yes" in a nice way.

Red Cross Notes

Honors for B.C.—British Columbia took honors in the Canadian Red Cross campaign this year by being the first province to go 50 per cent over its quota. To date returns from subscribers in this province have reached $1,325,000, 65 per cent over the $800,000 quota. This sets a record for B.C., states T. C. Clarke, provincial campaign chairman, who pays great credit to work of canvassers and generosity of subscribers.

Only birds that swim lose their ability to fly during the molting period. Land birds lose only a few wing feathers at a time, since flight is so necessary to their safety.

AUSTRALIAN NATIVES USE WEAPONS WHICH RETURN TO THROWER

A young Australian woman wrote me, not long ago, saying she had received letters from a number of Americans. Some of the letters, she added, showed that those who wrote them supposed most of the people in Australia had black skins.

The fact, of course, is that the native "blackfellows" are few in number compared to the whites. They make up less than one per cent of the total population of Australia.

The blackfellows, according to the latest census, number only 27,000. The majority of them live in the wild parts of the island continent, far from the coast.

The blackfellows have been called "the lowest race of mankind." Perhaps that is true, but they use a clever weapon—the boomerang—and it may be that their ancestors invented it.

The boomerang is a curved stick, which when thrown, will come back to its owner. The natives also use a weapon which is of much the same form but does not return.

A British sea captain, William Dampier, visited western Australia almost two and a half centuries ago. There he met natives who were expert boomerang throwers.

Most Australian boomerangs are from 18 to 30 inches in "span." They are made from green wood, often taken from acacia trees. The average weight is only about eight ounces.

The boomerang is thrown to ward the right; then it circles around and comes back. It may land at the feet of the thrower, but sometimes it falls 10 or 15 yards in back of him.

A boomerang may travel more than 300 feet ahead of the person who hurls it.

The war boomerangs of the blackfellows seldom return. They are dangerous weapons and may kill those who are struck by them.

"Throwing sticks" on the order of boomerangs were used in ancient Egypt. Ivory boomerangs have been used by the people of southern India.

5-Day Working Week Discussed By Synod

A proposal that the 43rd Synod of the Diocese of B.C. go on record as favoring a five-day week for labor to give the working man one day a week for recreation without encroaching on Sunday provoked considerable discussion among synod members Wednesday before it was finally withdrawn to be discussed another year.

The lay member of the synod who made the proposal said he believed if workers were given a day for play and rest, they would not be so tired from their labors they would be unable to go to church.

When the discussion ranged to people who were working on Sundays for pay, pointing out specifically cases claimed of men working on house construction on the Lord's Day, one member was prompted to ask if there was anything like the Lord's Day Alliance Act to control such activity.

He was told there was but that it was impossible to carry out a prosecution without a fiat from the attorney-general which, it was said, was hard to get these days. An added difficulty, the member was informed, was the problem of getting anyone to swear out a complaint. Some prosecutions had been carried out in previous years, he was told, but did not meet with any great success.

Finally, the synod decided that, though it had every sympathy with the proposal, present day conditions did not favor the idea, and the motion was withdrawn.

The synod passed a motion that, as soon as conditions permitted, each clergyman in the diocese was to be granted a month's holiday a year with full stipend.

By PETE SALLAWAY

WITH LAURIE LIDDLE willing to "angel" the series Vancouver Lauries are going to play off with Raymond Union Jacks for the western Canada senior men's basketball championship. Liddle is a clinch to dig down in his pocket for the payoff as the games will be played in the King Edward High School gym which boasts a seating capacity of not over 300 and that would be packing them in every nook and corner. Apparently Liddle is really basketball conscious as the Vancouver sponsor stepped in and guaranteed up to $300 if any loss resulted from the recent western semifinal in Raymond between the Union Jacks, Alberta champions, and Winnipeg St. Andrew's. He had no interest but he was anxious to have a western final run off.

AFTER WATCHING Lauries battle our Kins in the British Columbia series I came to the conclusion both clubs were nothing better than good senior B squads. Neither team played the basketball associated with such former champions as Dominos, Blue Ribbons, Varsity or Vancouver Westerns. Any of these teams could have beaten this year's participants in a canter. If the Jacks are the same calibre of club that came out to the coast to play Dominos and Blue Ribbons years ago they will have little trouble taking Lauries. Of course, their team may also be below par in which case the Vancouver squad will have a chance to cop the western crown. Then it would mean hauling Merritt Hayes across the continent for the Canadian final. That would be a real financial undertaking. If you don't think it means laying out real money just ask Dave Nicol. Whatever happens the playoffs are a clinch to cost Liddle a hatful of dough.

OPENING games in the major baseball leagues saw a sharp decline in attendance but brought about the establishment of seven new records. Not a bad afternoon's work. Six of the new marks in the record books were set up by Mel Ott, manager of the New York Giants, the other by first baseman George Metkovich of the Boston Red Sox. When Ott stepped to the plate for the first time he established a new National League record for being with one club the longest span. It was his 20th year as a Giant, surpassing Gabby Hartnett's 19 seasons with the Chicago Cubs. He also bettered five of his own standards. He drew two bases on balls to increase his total to 1,631; his runs batted in gave him 1,778; his double in the sixth gave him 1,026 extra base knocks and 2,076 extra bases and his three runs scored raised his lifetime figure to 1,787. Metkovich established an American League record by committing three errors in one inning.

SOCCER FANS would be well advised to make an effort to turn up early at Macdonald Park Saturday for the British Columbia juvenile final between local Black and Whites and Marpole. Unde-feated in league and island championship play the Black and Whites have some real promising material for senior elevens of the future. These same youngsters lost the provincial final to Marpole last spring 1 to 0 and are out for revenge playing at home. So how about some moral support for these youngsters?

Fine Turnout For Y Track Training

Over a dozen ambitious youngsters turned out at the Y.M.C.A. gym for the opening workout of coach Archie McKinnon's track and field squad. A brief and pointed talk on conditioning and fundamentals was given by the coach. A few simple calisthenics were gone through and then a five lap jog in the balcony, a short breather and five the other way. A little practice on how to carry the body and how to place the feet on the track with a minimum of shock to the muscles. Using batons as balancers, a little attention was given to the upper half of the body and how to balance with the arms. The group then returned to the gym floor where the fundamentals of the western roll and belly roll for the high jump were given.

Next Saturday the group will study sprinting, starting and broad jumping. A hearty welcome will be given any boy or girl 14 years of over who attends. Membership in the association is not necessary to enroll for track and field. Anyone who can't attend on Saturday afternoon is requested to leave their name, address and age at the "Y" desk any time during the week. The coach will notify them when outdoor workouts will commence.

The following names are already on the list: Bob Burnett, B. Gillespie, R. Dalziel, Spike Dalziel, Bill Dale, Bill Thompson, W. Dalziel, Ross Irving, Bill Dingley, Robert Sam, George Connolly, John Dobbie, Don Wilson, Jack Rowe, Cliff Salmond, J. Creedon, J. McKellar, Jim Forayth, Jeanne House, Megan Scott, Sheila Burnett, Elaine Siliburo, Pat Fleming and Roskyn Wilkinson.

St. Mike's Blow Hot

Defeat Canucks 6 to 3

TORONTO (CP) — Form reversals which have marked the best of seven series between Toronto St. Michael's College Majors and Moose Jaw Canucks for the Memorial Cup and Canadian junior hockey championship today loom a deciding factor in hockey's junior world series.

After blowing respectively hot and cold in the first two games of the series, St. Mike's really sizzled last night as they rocked Canucks back on their heels with a 6 to 3 victory before 14,032 fans, one of the largest crowds of the junior hockey season here.

Their performance was in sharp contrast with their display in the second game Monday which they lost 5 to 3 after taking the first game 8 to 5. Thus the fluctuating odds on the series once more favored coach Joe Primeau's eastern Canada champions.

St. Mike's struck swiftly last night. Johnny McCormack connected for two goals on passing plays in the first half of the period. Then defenceman Jimmy Thomson took over scoring twice on a long shot and a solo rush.

CANUCKS RALLY

Canucks made their strongest bid in the second period, a three-goal spurge touched off by Doug Toole when he accepted a pass from Lou Hauck on the goal crease and slapped the puck into an open net. Frank (Gopher) Ashworth scored the second on a breakaway and Hauck accounted for the other with a driving shot fired as he flew in on left wing on a pass from Toole.

The drive lost most of its steam when Tod Sloan took a pass from Gus Mortson behind the Canucks defence and shot it between goalie Bev Bentley's legs. Len Costello scored the final St. Mike's goal in the third period.

The teams meet in the fourth game Saturday afternoon or evening, depending on the result of tonight's Stanley Cup meeting between Red Wings and Toronto Maple Leafs at Detroit.

Ashworth and Toole came out of the game with injuries and coach Roy Bentley was not sure if they would be in shape for the Saturday game. Ashworth suffered a charley horse in the rugged third period and Toole was shaken by a hard bodycheck in the same session.

"We're going now — we can whip that club any time," said Primeau. Then he added: "If the boys play like they did to-night."

Coach Roy Bentley, unhappiest man in the western camp, said simply "that first period beat us, that's all."

Seattle, Portland Beaten in First Home Appearances

Seattle and Portland, riding the crest of early season Pacific Coast League winning streaks, both tumbled to defeat last night in opening games on their home fields.

The Rainiers, leading the loop, received a 3 to 2 rap at the hands of the Oakland A's, who moved into third place. Two runs in the third and another in the sixth clinched the game for the A's. Floyd Strome received credit for the win, though he was relieved on the mound in the seventh by "Sad Sam" Gibson when Seattle scored its second run.

Veteran Ad Liska of the Beavers weakened in the ninth inning to allow the lowly Hollywood Stars to squeeze across their two runs, giving the cellar-dwellers a 2 to 1 victory. Butch Moran, Hollywood first baseman, scored the winning run when shortstop Johnny O'Neill threw low on Hugh Willingham's ground ball.

SPLIT TWO

The Angels and San Diego split a twin bill at Los Angeles, the Padres coping the opener, 9 to 4, and the Angels the nightcap, 5 to 1. The league's leading pitcher, Carl Dumber of San Diego, racked up his sixth straight win in the first game. Lou Novikoff, the madcap Russian castoff from the Chicago Cubs, clinched the nightcap for Los Angeles with a three-run homer in the first inning.

Sacramento dropped from third to fourth place with its second straight loss to San Francisco, losing a loosely-played game to the Seals, 10 to 9.

The Solons exploded in the eighth for five runs to knot the score at 9-9, but a sharp single by Bernie Hall in the ninth brought in Johnny Piatto to give the Seals the game.

Wings Try New Plays

DETROIT (CP) — Toronto Maple Leafs and Detroit Red Wings will clash here tonight before an expected 13,500 spectators in the fifth game of their eight-point Stanley Cup final series.

Victory for the visitors would give them the world's hockey championship for the first time since 1942. Toronto leads the series 6 to 2 in points, and 3 to 1 in games.

Red Wings sights will be trained on Frank (Mr. Shutout) McCool, sensational rookie net minder, who set a new play-off mark in the first three games of the series by hanging consecutive 1 to 0, 2 to 0 and 1 to 0 shut-outs on Detroit before bowing before a 5 to 3 count in the fourth game.

Toronto defence in front of the former Calgary sport writer has been tighter than a drum most of the way, but manager Jack Adams has been sending his Wings through workouts, emphasizing plays to draw the Leaf defenders.

ADAMS CONFIDENT
Yesterday Adams said he was confident his squad could come from behind for their fourth Stanley Cup in 10 years, but added: "We'll have to make our own breaks and at this stage we can't make mistakes."

Precedent for a Wing victory is the 1942 championship series in which Toronto dropped the first three games to Detroit, but came back for four straight victories and the title.

A Wing triumph or a tie game tonight would send the team back to Toronto Saturday night. If a seventh game is needed, it will be played here Sunday.

Dizzy Trout Hurls Shutout In Debut

Dizzy Trout's strong right arm looms as important in the American League today as it did last year when the talented Detroit pitcher won 27 games in a pennant bid that missed fire by one game.

Critics who feared Trout might have "burned out" his salary whip in 1944 by overwork hurling 352 innings in 49 games got the answer in yesterday's seven-hit shutout job of the defending champion St. Louis Browns.

Dizzy never was in trouble in the 11 to 0 victory that ruined St. Louis' hopes of breaking away from the field in another running start like their nine straight of a year ago.

The Tigers clawed five Brownie pitchers, including loser Jack Kramer, for 21 blows, four by Jimmy Outlaw and three each by Skeeter Webb, Eddie Mayo and Doc Kramer, who batted home six.

Threat to St. Louis from another quarter was seen in the New York Yankees' newly-found ability to stage big game-winning innings. The old Yankee habit was sadly lacking last season but the 1945 version copied their opener from Boston 6 to 2 with a five-run third inning that kayoed rookie Jim Wilson.

FIVE-HIT TRICK

Hank Borowy turned in the lowest hit performance of the day when he rationed Boston to five safeties.

Russ Christopher's 1 to 0 verdict over Washington must have done Connie Mack's heart good. He turned in the masterpiece of the infant season by scattering seven Senator blows over 12 innings.

Ed Houser goose-egged Pittsburgh, 6 to 0, with Frank McCormick driving in half the scores for Cincinnati with a perfect three for three day.

Keppie Dick Barrett of the Phillies followed last year's pattern by earning his first decision at Brooklyn's expense, 6 to 2. Freddy Fitzsimmons' rookies belted Ben Chapman off the hill with a five-run fourth inning. Granville Hamner came through with a bases-loaded single to ruin Leo Durocher's strategy of passing Gus Mancuso to get at him.

Van (the new) Mungo had to get relief help from Ace Adams who received credit for the New York Giants' 8 to 4 victory over Boston Braves.

Chicago White Sox tilt at Cleveland was postponed by cold weather and Chicago and St. Louis in the National were not scheduled.

58,000 Applications Received Here For Family Allowances

Family allowance application forms, continue to pour in at the rate of 2,000 a day, and to date approximately 58,000 applications have been received at the temporary office on Government Street, W. R. Bone, regional director for B.C., said today.

At the peak, approximately 4,500 forms were coming in daily, he said, but the fine work of the volunteer workers, from the women's volunteer services, had kept everything under control and made it possible for his staff to carry on with checking and keep the routine work up to schedule.

Approximately 5 per cent of the forms are having to be returned because of failure to answer all the required questions, or because of obvious discrepancies among the answers, he said, but on the whole they are being filled out very well.

The Department of National Health and Welfare has got out a special booklet entitled "Family Allowances, a Children's Charter," which gives the answers to 45 of the most commonly asked questions about family allowances. This booklet may be had on request.

NO ADDRESSES
There have been several applications come in without addresses, Mr. Bone said, and his office has no way of knowing where they come from. "The only thing we can do is wait until these people, some time the latter part of July, start querying why they haven't received a cheque," he said.

The policy is to inform those whose forms are not properly filled out as quickly as possible, he said. He urged everyone who intended to apply for family allowances to get their completed forms in as quickly as possible, because if they delay until the last minute it may be impossible to get the checking done in time to issue their allowance with the first payment in July.

On the forms that have come in to date, a sample check-up indicates that the average application is for two children. For families with children born in B.C., the average per family is 1.73 children, and for families now resident here but with children born in other parts of Canada the average is 2.23 children per family.

Already the registers of births for the past 18 years are being made up, Mr. Bone explained that all B.C. applications would be checked with this register by his staff. In addition any child born in B.C. and now resident in another province for whom application is made will have its name on a list submitted by the province in which it is now resident, and the B.C. staff will have to check on its behalf too.

Similarly, on the applications received in this office, Mr. Bone explained, lists are being made up of children born elsewhere, and these lists will be sent to the appropriate province. To date, of births outside B.C., Saskatchewan children make up the largest contingent.

Where children are born outside Canada, family allowance officials request a birth certificate, and if this is not obtainable, as in the case of children from war-torn or occupied countries, immigration records at the port of entry will be accepted as proof of age.

There have been quite a number of applications received on behalf of children not yet born, he said, and pointed out that these were not acceptable, and would have to be made again when the child is born.

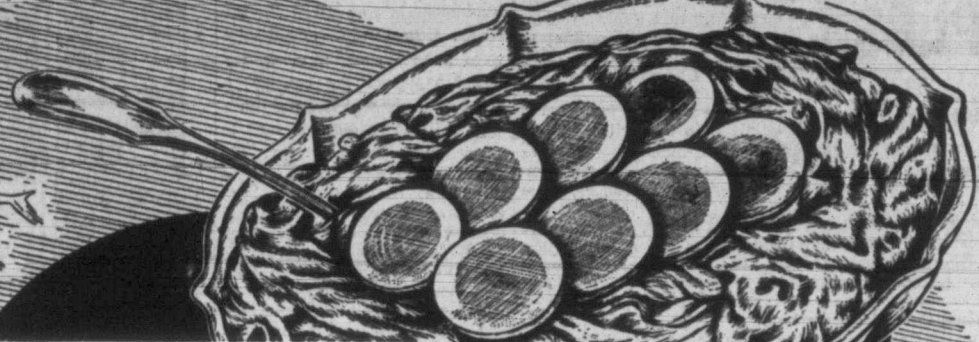

It is expected that the new and permanent quarters in the Weiler Building will be ready within the next two or three weeks, Mr. Bone hopes to have the preliminary checking work done before the move is made.

Dogwoods Protected By Special Act
The dogwood, one of the most beautiful of native trees, which is not so common in other parts of the world, is protected by a special act of the B.C. Legislature.

Forest Service Department officials reminded the public today. As the dogwoods, nearing their greatest brilliance, forest service officials said it was forbidden to cut dogwood. The legislation, designed to protect the tree which, through careless and wholesale picking, was threatened with extinction, reads: "No person shall pick, cut down, dig or pull up, or knowingly destroy in part or in whole, whether in blossom or not, any dogwood on land of any private owner, without the consent of the private owner being first obtained or on land belonging to the Crown in right of the province or to a municipality."

The act provides for a $25 fine, half of which may be paid to the person on whose information the fine is recovered.

Bishop Proposes Toast to Premier

During a dinner at which the clergy of the diocese were his guests, Wednesday evening, Bishop Harold E. Sexton proposed the toast to the Premier of British Columbia, which was honored enthusiastically by all. In his remarks the bishop deprecated the tendency in some quarters to be unduly critical and unappreciative of leading men in public life, in which he included bishops as well as political leaders. "The province of British Columbia is very fortunate in its wise and far-seeing premier and its present government, which is probably the best the province has ever had," Bishop Sexton said. He described Premier Hart as a "kindly and considerate gentleman, who is generally concerned in the welfare of the people," and said that many were "the kind and thoughtful actions performed by Mr. Hart, of which the public knows nothing, nor are the beneficiaries aware of the source of their good fortune."

Scout Movement Plans for Postwar; To Add New Section

Preparations are underway for a tremendous growth in the Boy Scout movement in the postwar years, with an addition of a new section to be known as Senior Scouts, R.C. Stevenson, Montreal, chairman of the Dominion executive board of the Boy Scouts' Association, said on his arrival in Victoria today. "With a membership increase in 1944 of 816, the association in British Columbia made the second largest gain of any province in Canada," he said. "This splendid growth has been made, despite the difficulties of securing leaders, with so many former scouts and leaders are in the forces, and Mr. Stevenson expressed the opinion that hundreds of these men would return to scouting after the war, starting new groups all over the country. Following the last war, scouting soon doubled its population and a similar growth is expected after this war, he added. "I am confident that the scouts of Victoria and the island will do their share in the expansion of the membership to 100,000, which is the objective set by the board for 1945 for Canadian scouting," Mr. Stevenson said. "It is agreed by all that the scout training is a great help to boys, and, therefore, more of the youth of Canada should be given the opportunity of participating in the character building made possible by the scout organization."

Religious Education Reported to Synod

Many members of the church were pitifully ignorant of what the church really was, and many unaware of the stability of society depended on the putting of Christian principles into practice, said the Rev. H. H. Creal, chairman of the Diocesan Board of Religious Education in his report today to members of the 43rd Synod of the Diocese of B.C. meeting in the Memorial Hall for its second day. In spite of considerably more attention being paid to improved methods of teaching and of the formation of many organizations within the church for children and young people, there was a failure, he said, "to develop a sense of loyalty and obligation and a desire to serve God among them. Recognizing the introduction of reading of Holy Scriptures in public and high schools as a step in the right direction, Mr. Creal added the suggestion of distributing portions of Scripture to the homes accompanied with explanations of the appointed passages. He also suggested finding out what use was being made of Bible study covers for students in high schools. The Ven. Archdeacon Morris, on behalf of the General Synod Pension Fund, addressed the Synod on the state of the Clergy Pension Fund and on the need for placing the fund on an actuarial basis.

B.C. Police Probe Further Into Death Of Fur Trappers

Report received by B.C. Police that one of two trappers' bodies found in northern B.C. had a fractured skull has led into a new investigation of the two deaths. The bodies were found by Indians from 30 to 40 miles apart, and at widely separated times. B.C. Police officials stated here today that reports received are incomplete, though the possibility exists that the two deaths may have been connected. The body of Arthur Evans was found Jan. 30 about 40 miles northeast of Bear Lake, huddled over a charcoal fire when he had apparently been trying to warm himself. He died of starvation and exposure. Austin O. Middlemiss, a Vancouver man, was reported April 3 by Russ Baker, C.P.A. pilot. Police investigated and identified the body by papers found in Middlemiss' pocket. Examination revealed the skull had been crushed. The men, partners, went into the area last fall to trap. Their furs have not yet been located.

Maitland, Perry To New Westminster

Attorney-General R. L. Maitland, provincial Progressive Conservative leader, and Education Minister H. G. T. Perry, will attend the Coalition government's nominating convention tonight to name a candidate for the forthcoming New Westminster by-election.

The by-election, set for May 10, is to fill a vacancy in the B.C. Legislature created by the death last year of Hon. A. Wells Gray, minister of lands.

Nomination of a Coalition candidate for the contest will be by 50 delegates from the Liberal Party and 50 from the Progressive Conservative Party.

Contesting the nomination will be former New Westminster Mayor Fred A. Hume, who has reiterated an announcement made last year that he would run on an independent ticket. Only other candidate in the field to date is Jack Greenall, nominated some time ago by the Labor Progressive Party.

Meanwhile, Harold Winch, C.C.F. leader of the Opposition, and Grant MacNeill, M.L.A., and C.C.F. provincial campaign manager, have announced in a joint statement the by-election will be the bitterest contest yet faced by the C.C.F. in the province, adding that the Hart-Maitland administration must now put its policies to the test of public approval.

Pte. Leonard Twamley, 21, thrice wounded on the Italian front, was among a group of servicemen arriving back in Canada recently under the tri-wounded plan. Overseas 16 months with the Westminster Regiment, he suffered a fractured spine, broken ribs, and 11 minor injuries when last wounded in January. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Twamley, 3341 Cedar Hill Road, expect him home today.

Power Commission Maps Out Plans At First Meeting

Premier John Hart, meeting today for the first time with the three-man power commission appointed Wednesday, outlined to the commissioners the work he expected of them and discussed organization of the board which aims at extending rural electrification and develop power projects. Later in the day the three commissioners, Samuel R. Weston, chairman, former chief engineer of the B.C. Public Utilities Commission; Maj.-Gen. W. W. Foster, special commissioner for defence projects in northwest Canada, and Forrest L. Shaw, Victoria city solicitor, discussed organization. It is understood that Premier Hart emphasized to the board the necessity of speed of action in starting the machinery of the commission. At the last session of the B.C. Legislature $10,000,000 was voted to the commission to carry on its work. Pending the acquisition of a permanent office in Victoria, the commission will carry on in temporary quarters at the Parliament Buildings.

Government Plans Surveys for North

Organization of two important survey parties to go into northern B.C. this summer was underway today, it was announced by Lands Minister E. T. Kenney's office. One party, which will be a joint provincial-Dominion project, will establish the B.C.-Yukon boundary line. It will be headed by A. J. Campbell of the provincial topographical staff of the lands department. Work will begin west of Teslin Lake and move toward Watson Lake.

Purpose of the survey is to establish the jurisdiction of certain boundary communities and points. While it is known the Alaska Highway crosses the B.C.-Yukon boundary at least five points, it is thought this survey may possibly establish other crossings. The second party, to be headed by Hugh Pattinson, also of the topographic staff, will work in the Dease Lake-Endako area in an effort to complete triangulation undertaken last year. Work in this area follows a survey of the Rocky Mountain Trench. With completion of the Dease Lake-Endako survey the government will have complete data on both these important north-south highway routes which may be used for an Alaska Road hook-up.

Survey parties last summer established the height of the pass between the Skeena and Telegraph Creek was 500 feet lower than anticipated, a matter of considerable importance in winter travel.

Railways Targets Of Allied Planes

LONDON (CP) — Railway targets in southern Germany and Czechoslovakia were attacked today for fourth successive day by 600 U.S. 8th Air Force heavy bombers and 550 fighters, which also continued to search for remnants of German air power. British and Russian bombers hammered Berlin in relays again Wednesday night. R.A.F. Mosquitoes sandwiched two attacks on the German capital in between a nighttime series of raids by Soviet aircraft. A strong force of R.A.F. heavy bombers, meanwhile, blasted enemy escape railways between U.S. and Russian armies in southern Germany for the fourth straight night.

Town Topics

Annual school concert will be held at Oaklands School Friday night at 7.30 in the school auditorium.

A building permit was issued to A. C. Hollingworth to build a four-room dwelling at 2659 Forbes Street. Value $4,500.

A building permit has been issued to R. A. Clarke to erect a six-roomed dwelling at 1515 Haultain Street, value $5,700.

Commissioner David C. Lamb, C.M.G., LL.D., O.F., of the Salvation Army, called on Mayor Percy George this morning to pay his respects.

Failure to attend four recent military parades of the reserve army cost Harry Eng fines amounting to $20 this morning in city police court.

The Greater Victoria Airport Committee has recommended to the city council that Victoria be represented at the B.C. Provincial Air Conference at Kamloops, May 24 to 25.

Mayor Percy George will welcome delegates to the annual convention of the B.C. Elks' Association to be held here June 5. An invitation was sent from George F. Todd, convention committee secretary of Victoria Lodge No. 2.

Henry James Williams, proprietor of Dad's Confectionery Port Street, was fined $50 and costs by Magistrate H. C. Hall in City Police Court today for selling canned goods and soft drinks above W.P.T.B. maximums.

Theft of daffodils from Beacon Hill Park continues, parks superintendent Herb Warren reported today as he again urged citizens not to pick the flowers. The other day he said he picked up more than five dozen flowers that had been plucked and apparently dropped as the thief was interrupted.

The city council lands committee decided to inquire from other western Canadian cities about their policy regarding sale of reverted lands to returning servicemen before recommending any policy for Victoria. Ald. J. D. Hunter, chairman of the committee said following a meeting today.

Because of the large number of inquiries from ladies for tickets to the Canadian Club luncheon next Monday at which General Sir William Dobbie, defender of Malta, will speak, Canadian Club officials wish to point out that the luncheon is for men only, and that the general public will be given an opportunity to hear General Dobbie at a public meeting in the Royal Victoria Theatre Tuesday night.

U.S. Troops Hitting Key City, Bologna

ROME (AP) — U.S. troops of the 5th Army, cracking the outer defences of Bologna, drove to within eight miles south of the great industrial city today after seizing the key heights of Monte Adone and Monte Rucini in a bitter 60-hour battle. Meanwhile British 8th Army troops knifed through the toughest defences on the road to Ferrara to the northeast, stormed through the Argenta gap and captured the Po Valley town of Boccaccone.

The 5th Army advance appeared to have loosened German defences south of the Po Valley gateway city and gave the U.S. troops a downhill road to Bologna with much mountain generally smaller than the last, a front dispatch said.

Troops of the 91st Division took Monte Adone, between Highways 64 and 65, as other forces dug the Germans out of caves on Monte Rucini. These actions south of Bologna yielded nearly 200 enemy prisoners—a high figure for this mountainous sector.

High Students In Loan Program

A program of patriotic songs and national airs by the students of Victoria High School under the direction of Miss Norma Douglas, will be given at the Bond Shell on View Street, Saturday afternoon at 2.30, to provide the first public opening feature of the eighth Victory Loan, which will commence Monday.

Prior to the program, the R.C.N. Band, under Bandmaster S. Sunderland will parade through the city to the Bond Shell and will play selections before, during the interval and after the vocal program.

First group of songs will be the national anthems of Britain, U.S., China, U.S.S.R., France and the smaller United Nations. The second group of songs will comprise "The Maple Leaf," "Waltz, Matilda," "Loch Lomond," "Meadowlands," "The Caissons Go Rolling Along" and "There'll Always Be An England."

Mrs. Roosevelt Plans To Continue Writing

NEW YORK (AP) — Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt said today in her newspaper column she would not accept or run for public office or any office at the present time. She added, however, that she planned to continue her column, "My Day," and her magazine page in the Ladies' Home Journal as well as writing "an occasional article."

George A. Carlin, general manager of United Features Syndicate, said Mrs. Roosevelt's contract to write "My Day" had been renewed last March 10 for five years.

"Mrs. Roosevelt is a great lady and a great person in her own right," he declared. "Her column will be accepted on its own merits. From now on she can speak more freely on all matters."

In her column today, Mrs. Roosevelt said: "I have two jobs that I consider myself obligated to do and that I want to do. My daily column I have always looked upon as a job which I wanted to have considered on its merits. Because I was the wife of the President, certain restrictions were imposed upon me. Now I am on my own, and I hope to write as a newspaper woman."

"My magazine page is also a contract that I wish to fulfill as well as I possibly can."

Equipment Sought For Playground

The City Council will be asked by the Parks Committee to authorize the expenditure of $2,500 on playground equipment for Beacon Hill, Central, Stadacona, Spencer and Hollywood Parks and at James Bay and Victoria West playgrounds, it was decided at a committee meeting Wednesday afternoon, Ald. D. D. Matavish, chairman, reported.

At the request of a delegation representing the Five C's and Albion cricket clubs, headed by Percy C. Payne, the committee agreed to cut the grass in the cricket field at Beacon Hill Park and to supply a load of topsoil.

The City Council will be asked to approve the calling for tenders for painting the bandstand, bird cages and lookout in Beacon Hill Park and the Royal Athletic Park grandstand.

The committee will recommend that Robert A. Noel be given advertising rights in Royal Athletic Park for $100 this year, and with option to renew for the next three years.

Vancouver Island Joint Labor Conference was granted use of Beacon Hill Park for a rally on May 6; Yarrow's Athletic Association the Macdonald Park for a picnic May 21 for $50; David Spencer Girls' Cricket Club, Macdonald Park, and Victoria city schools physical education committee the Royal Athletic Park for school sports on May 24.

THE CORPORATION OF THE DISTRICT OF SAANICH ZONING BY-LAW
NOTICE OF HEARING
NOTICE is hereby given that all persons who deem themselves affected by the provisions of the proposed "ZONING BY-LAW, 1944, AMENDMENT BY-LAW (No. 3), 1945" of the Corporation of the District of Saanich, will be afforded an opportunity to be heard on the matters contained therein, before the Municipal Council at a public hearing to be held in the Council Chamber of the Municipal Hall, Royal Oak, on TUESDAY, April 24th, 1945, at 8.30 p.m.

A copy of the proposed By-law may be inspected at the Municipal Hall, Royal Oak, between the hours of nine o'clock a.m. and twelve o'clock p.m., on any Saturday and between the hours of nine o'clock a.m. and five o'clock p.m. on any other weekday.

J. E. THIESE, Clerk of the Corporation of the District of Saanich.

The above amendment provides for the following:

1. Zone Area "E" (single family dwellings, with a minimum of 1,000 square feet floor area living space) to be extended easterly to include Hill Road to include all of Lots 12 and 14, Block A, 84, Section 22, Victoria District, and all properties fronting on Shoreline Road and extending southerly to the south boundary of Section 26, Victoria District.

2. Transfer of Lot J, 2 and 5, Map 468, Section 64, Victoria District, corner of Nicholson and Quadra Streets, from Residential Zone Area "R" to "Commercial" Zone Area and will permit the operation of "Automobile Service Station."

3. That Area bounded on the North by Lucas Street, on the East by Morris Drive, on the South by McBride Street and on the West by a line parallel to and distant 300 feet East of Quadra Street to be Zoned "Industrial" and will permit the operation of "Industrial" buildings and necessary outbuildings and having a minimum of 400 square feet floor area living space.

The successes indicated a lessening enemy resistance in the area. Chalk, an oilfield town 35 miles southwest of Paokkuk, was taken in an encircling movement from the south and east. To the north, Singu fell after an air blow which had softened up enemy defenses in the southern sector of the city. A British column overpowered the remaining Japanese and plunged on southward against slight opposition. The Japanese appeared to be withdrawing along both banks of the Irrawaddy.

Commissioners Named
Rebekah Miller, member of the Victoria city social service staff, has been appointed a commissioner to take affidavits. It was learned Wednesday. She was formerly on the staff of the social assistance branch of the provincial secretary's department at Vancouver.

T. R. Bradbury, deputy emergency shelter administrator, New Westminster, and Grace E. Bebb, assistant civilian personnel officer, department of national defence, Vancouver, were also commissioned this week by order-in-council.

365,000 New Homes In Britain 2 Years After End of War

LONDON (CP)—A disillusioned British public has been told it must expect a 50 per cent cut in house-building planned for the first two years after the end of the war in Europe and the government, in a move aimed at forestalling criticism over official planning failures, has reorganized the works ministry to accelerate construction and repair.

Only a few months ago the government's stated aim was 800,000 new homes in two years—300,000 permanent dwellings and at least 500,000 "portal" temporaries.

Now the objective has been revised by Works Minister Duncan Sandys to 365,000 homes, of which 220,000 permanent dwellings will be finished along with only 145,000 portals.

In the departmental reorganization, Gen. Sir Frederick Pile, commander-in-chief of anti-aircraft command, has been appointed director-general in charge of all the ministry's building responsibilities, including temporary housing.

Housing has been given No. 1 priority after the winning of the war and the next two years have been designated as a period of "national emergency" in home construction.

$200,000 Objective For Civil Servants
B.C.'s civil servants in the Parliament Buildings have nearly completed plans for their share of Canada's eighth Victory Loan starting next Monday.

The more than 400 government workers in the buildings, from where so many young men and women went off to war, take great pride in the splendid results of their Victory Loan work to date. Each loan they have exceeded their quota and each loan the quota gets higher. There is much good-natured rivalry between the various departments.

Thursday, April 19, will see two Victory Loan rallies, at 3 and 4 p.m. in the Legislative Chamber.

An armed-service speaker, just back from war, will tell of his experiences overseas.

J. V. Fisher, assistant deputy minister of finance, is chairman of the civil servants' Victory Loan committee. Secretary is J. T. Clark, surveyor of taxes, and working with them are E. G. Rowbottom, deputy minister of trade and industry; E. K. deBeck, superintendent of brokers and administrator of the Credit Union Act; Charles Hopper, superintendent of lands; A. W. E. Pitkethly, public works department accountant; W. H. Currie, acting director, B.C. Government Travel Bureau; Fred Hurley, chief clerk in the Provincial Secretary's department and T. W. Hall, Department of Education registrar.

Quota for the civil servants has been set at $150,000, the highest yet. Last year the quota was $125,000, but the civil servants subscribed $16

Awarded D.F.C.

Lt. L. W. T. Glass, 24, R.C.A.F., overseas two years and now serving as bomb leader of the Bison Squadron, has been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross for his participation in raids on enemy territory according to an announcement at Ottawa defence headquarters.
Son of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Glass, 203 Quebec Street, he completed his first tour of operations some time ago, and is now on his second.
While serving as a bomb aimer on a crippled Halifax returning from invasion targets on D-Day, Glass spotted a twin-engine troop-carrying aircraft "ditch" in the English Channel. He secured a "fix" on the troop-carrier and on his report the soldiers and crew were rescued.
Born in Saskatoon, Sask., he received his education at Esquimalt public and high schools.

Capt. Desmond Bleasdale, son of Mrs. Jessie Bleasdale, 1030 Cook Street, injured in a motorcycle accident while serving in Normandy, arrived in Victoria Saturday. Overseas three years, Capt. Bleasdale is Victoria-born and attended Oaklands and Victoria High schools. He is well-known as a badminton player.
Among 14 members of the Canadian Army serving overseas recently mentioned in dispatches was Lieut. Lester Albert Stilling, 25, of Victoria.
Wounded in Holland mid-December last, Lieut. Stilling suffered shell fragment injuries to his right shoulder and scalp, facial nerves were exposed and the hearing of the left ear is gone, but recent word received by his wife, Margaret, who lives at 246 Howe Street, with their infant daughter, states his condition has improved considerably, so much so that he is expected home in the near future.
Born in Saskatoon, the lieutenant went overseas originally in 1939, and in March, 1943, returned to take his C.O.T.C.; graduated, and was commissioned at Gordon Head, and returned overseas in April last year, where he served on loan to the British Army until wounded in Holland.

PO. Alex J. Allan, R.C.A.F., home once again, following three years' service overseas, is spending leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Allan, 1520 Pearl Street. Finished his operational some time ago, he served as an instructor in Northern Ireland before repatriation. He is a native son and attended Burnside, North Ward, and Victoria High Schools, and prior to enlistment was in the employ of Kelly Douglas Co. Ltd., Yates Street, for four years.

Only son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lukey, Ten Mile Point, Lt. John A. Lukey, 25, R.C.A.F., was listed missing following operations of April 4, according to word received by his parents. Enlisting in May, 1941, he was stationed for a time at Patricia Bay and on his last instruction course as pilot of a Mosquito in England, he and his navigator gained top marks. He was a pupil of Monterey and Mount Douglas Schools, and before enlistment was with the Imperial Tobacco Co., Vancouver, where his wife and daughter reside.

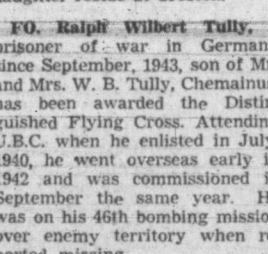

Lieut. John Francois, who recently took command of H.M.C.S. Thorlock. Gold medal winner while a member of the sea cadets, Johnny went to sea as an officer cadet with Canadian Government Merchant Marine in 1919. He saw service on the Great Lakes prior to joining the fishery patrol service. Joining the navy in September, 1939, he served on the Malaspina and later left for Atlantic "convoy duty" on the Wetaakiwin early in 1941. He served aboard H.M.C.S. Saguenay before taking command of H.M.C.S. Noranda. His wife resides at 351 St. James Street.

Cpl. Malcolm Martyn, 20, Royal Winnipeg Rifles, son of Col. D. B. Martyn and Mrs. Martyn, formerly of Victoria, listed missing October 10 following action in the Leopold Canal sector in Belgium and later reported prisoner of war, has been liberated from internment according to word received here.

Lieut. Douglas B. Stewart, B.E.M., 26, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Stewart, 2051 Runnymede Avenue, educated in Victoria, and with the Canadian Scottish since his 17th year, who lost his life overseas following action in Germany. His wife and infant daughter reside at Crofton.

FO. Ralph Wilbert Tully, a prisoner of war in Germany since September, 1943, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Tully, Chemainus, has been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross. Attending U.B.C. when he enlisted in July, 1940, he went overseas early in 1942 and was commissioned in September the same year. He was on his 46th bombing mission over enemy territory when reported missing.

Victoria-born, Lieut. Arthur P. Beavan, R.C.E., has been awarded the Military Cross for gallantry in action overseas, an army public relations release states. The 34-year-old officer was living in Kirkland Lake, Ont., before enlistment in 1941, where he was employed as a geologist following graduation from Queen's University with a M.Sc. degree. He went overseas in June, 1942. His wife and young son live in Kingston, Ont.

KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN MUFFINS

2 tablespoons shortening	1/4 cup sugar	1 egg
1 cup Kellogg's All-Bran	3/4 cup milk	1 cup sifted flour
1/2 teaspoon salt	2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder

Cream shortening and sugar thoroughly. Add egg; beat well. Stir in milk and All-Bran. (You'll love the heavenly nut-like flavour the delicate shreds of All-Bran give these muffins. And the soft, tender texture, too!) Let soak until most of moisture is taken up. Sift flour with salt and baking powder. Add to first mixture and stir only until flour disappears. Fill greased muffin pans 3/4 full. Bake in medium-hot oven (400° F.) about 30 minutes. 8 large muffins.

8 VARIATIONS

BACON muffins—add 1/4 cup crisp dried bacon to dry ingredients.

ORANGE muffins. Add 2 tablespoons grated orange rind to dry ingredients.

IMPORTANT: The daily use of Kellogg's All-Bran, either in these delicious muffins or as a cereal, helps avoid that irritable, depressed feeling which so often accompanies constipation. What's more—All-Bran (because it is made only from the vital outer layers of the wheat grain) is remarkably rich in certain protective food elements, such as calcium, phosphorus, and iron, that are absolutely essential to your health and vital energy. Be sure that you and your family get All-Bran every day!

Made and guaranteed by Kellogg in London, Canada.

IF YOU DON'T WANT ANOTHER WAR

When we found out at Dieppe just what equipment was needed for the assault on "Fortress Europa" you folks at home certainly did a swell job in supplying it.

Things are cracking up fast over here now but there's still lots for us to do if you don't want another war in 25 years.

Before we're through, we ought to disarm the Huns—then help clean up the Japs—and fix things so neither can ever cause such bloodshed and destruction again.

Let us finish the Job!

"Ministry of Fear"

With Ray Milland heading the cast of "Ministry of Fear" in a film adapted from Graham Greene's stirring novel, it's little wonder that preview audiences are predicting another Paramount hit! A psychological drama which carries an emotional punch from the opening scene to the smash climax, "Ministry of Fear," arriving tomorrow at the Dominion Theatre, appears destined to rank with best motion pictures of its type ever made in Hollywood.

Fans who remember Ray's dynamic performance in "The Uninvited" will again be pleasantly surprised with this story's theme and the unpredictable turn of events. It's suspense at its best, say the gossipers, and can do no less than keep customers glued to the seats, eyes fixed on the screen and hearts beating a little faster. For cast associates in "Ministry of Fear," Ray has lovely Marjorie Reynolds, svelte Hillary Brooke, handsome Carl Esmond and such central figures of the plot as Percy Waram, Alan Napier and Erskine Sanford.

ATLAS THEATRE
 Sparkling comedy and delicately-etched characterizations, the two expertly blended, serve to lift "Quiet Wedding," a Universal release starring Margaret Lockwood, which is now at the Atlas Theatre, into the "don't miss" class. Based on Esther McCracken's London stage success of the same title, the offering presents a vivid canvas of domestic confusion that will bring laughter for all types of audiences.

Heifetz to Play In "Ragged Banners"
 Jascha Heifetz, the celebrated violinist, who makes his screen debut in Samuel Goldwyn's "Ragged Angels," now showing at the York Theatre, tells the story of how he once fooled a concert manager. This manager had insisted that he play his famed Stradivarius, and Heifetz resented this dictation, but said nothing. That evening he played his concert on his aluminum violin, with no one the wiser. This unusual instrument, by the way, is used by the maestro in one musical scene in the film.

CAPITOL THEATRE
 So certain was Hollywood of Gregory Peck's talents and public acclaim that even before he completed his assignment of Francis Chisholm in 20th Century-Fox's filmization of A. J. Cronin's novel, "The Keys of the Kingdom," now at the Capitol Theatre, he was snowed under with film offers. He now has a record unequalled in film history. He holds a series of contracts which cover 12 roles in as many pictures which, all told, will dominate approximately $18,000,000 worth of entertainment.

In bombing German industry the Army Air Forces flew more than a quarter million sorties and dropped more than 200,000 tons of bombs between Jan. 1 and May 15, 1945.
